The center of population of the United States has been fixed by the government in Bloomington, Ind., 39 miles west of where it was in 1900.

With little trace of friction the Republican National Committee met at Washington and formulated the preliminary plans for the campaign of 1912, the advisers of President Taft being in complete control of the meeting. The national Republican convention will meet in Chicago June 18.

King George V. and his consort, Queen Mary, were Tuesday crowned Emperor and Empress of India at Delhi. The ceremonies were followed by generous gifts from King George for popular education.

Saved by a Dream.

Hugh Larue, a miner employed in the Cross Mountain mine, believes he owes his life to a dream his wife had Friday night. When he awoke Saturday morning and prepared to go to his daily task in the mine Mrs. Larue told him she would not prepare dinner for him to carry to the mines as she did not want him to work that day. She then recited a dream she had, giving this as her reason for asking that her husband stay out of the mine.

Mrs. Larue said that the night before, she dreamed she saw scores of miners with their heads blown off being carried out of the mine entrance. That she and her little children, and she has several, stood at the mine's mouth watching the unfortunate coal diggers being carried out. She feared for the life of her husband she said. Despite the fact that he had not missed a day from his work for many months, he was prevailed upon to remain out of the mines. It was only a short time after Mrs. Larue recited her story until the explosion was announced. With tears of joy streaming down her face, she embraced her husband and thanked God that she had had the dream. Their little children gathered about them rejoicing, too, that their father is yet alive. They joined in sympathizing with the little children who gathered around the mine entrance, whose fathers were killed.

Munfordsville, Ky., Dec. 13.—The four-year-old daughter of William Bostick was burned to death and her six-year-old sister fatally burned when fire destroyed the Bostick cabin near here this morning. Awakening to find his home in flames, Bostick carried his wife, who is seriously ill with typhoid fever, to a place of safety. The elder child rushed out of the house. Returning to get her sister, the elder child was fatally burned in a vain attempt to reach her.

HOPE NOW ABANDONED

Five Live Miners And 34 Dead Bodies Rescued at Briceville.

Briceville, Tenn., Dec. 13.—All Briceville has again taken on the aspect of mourning when yesterday failed to bring forth more survivors from the Cross Mountain mine horror. Clearing weather and the hope inspired by the rescue of five of the entombed men last night encouraged most of the women inhabitants of the village who linger near the mine all day. Hope failed when nightfall arrived with no encouraging message from the rescuers.

Thirty-four dead bodies, some of them badly mutilated but not beyond recognition, have been brought out and several more have been located. The dead were taken to the carpenter shop of the mine and prepared for burial.

Stopped Those Pains.

Copper Hill, Va.—Mrs. Ida Conner, of this place, says, "For years, I had a pain in my right side, and I was very sick with womanly troubles. I tried different doctors but could get no relief. I had given up all hope of ever getting well. I took Cardui, and it relieved the pain in my side, and now I feel like a new person. It is a wonderful medicine." Many women are completely worn-out and discouraged on account of some womanly trouble. Are you? Take Cardui, the woman's tonic. Its record shows that it will help you. Why wait? Try it today. Ask your druggist about it.

As He Understood It. A Portekshio (Scottland) schoolboy has produced the champion hammer of the season. The passage of the phrase was from Klingens: "The men must work and women must weep, though storms be sudden and water deep, and the harbor bar be moaning." "Men and women," said the youngster, "must keep on working though the bar at the harbor is groaning for its customers."
